motions that have been waiting for consideration.

The daughter of J. A. De Shazo, who was so severely burned Thursday, an account of which was printed yesterday, died last night in agony.

Street Commissioner J. J. Spencer is doing a very creditable piece of street work in front of the Western block. A great many have spoken favorably of it.

George Sheets, the gentleman who tunes about all the good pianos in Vinita, will be here next week. Leave orders for tuning or repairing at Brock's music store.

Now that the Frisco has reduced passenger fare to three cents a mile, let the Katy do likewise, and so cease to discriminate against the good people of the Indian Territory.

Patrons of the postoffice will be pleased to know that Miss Neil Byrd is to remain in the office. She is pleasant, efficient and accommodating, and never seems to get impatient.

Beginning Monday a new time schedule will go into effect on the Frisco, as follows: west bound passenger 9:51, a. m.; east bound 5:43, p. m.; local, west bound, 12:47 p. m.; east bound, 11:41 a. m.

Because of illness Mrs. P. L. Soper was compelled to recall invitations this morning to an entertainment proposed to be given a number of her lady friends this afternoon, in honor of her guest, Miss Clara Francis.

A farmer's team became frightened at a passing train today and broke the hitching post in front of Martin's harness shop, and tore around at a dangerous rate for a while but was finally caught and held by several men.

Thanksgiving Excursion.

The Frisco will celebrate the completion of its line into Oklahoma City by running a Thanksgiving excursion into St. Louis from all points in the territory on the line, available for return from St. Louis Sunday evening, November 27.

That Quack Bur.

Charley Grimes, the young man operated upon yesterday by Drs. Fortner & Bagby for a burr lodged in his throat is not doing well. It is believed by the physicians that the burr is lodged lower down in the trachea than where the opening was made yesterday, and beyond the reach of an operation.

Outing Scrape.

Sam Bigknife and Jess Gauld came in this afternoon from the Grand river country and reported a cutting scrape at a dance last night, not far from Bolens ferry. A man named Slate was cut pretty badly and writs were sworn out for the parties involved, and Heck Bruner went out to make the arrests.

An Evening With Authors.

Mrs. Judge H. E. Don Carlos entertained the academy faculty and a few other friends last night. Part of the evening was spent in "guessing" authors from their pictures. Prof. Caldwell was awarded the prize for naming the greatest number of faces, while Dr. Day and Prof. Dugger, and another gentleman, "drew straws" for the "booby" prize.

Back to Service.

Lieut. Allen Cook and wife leave tomorrow afternoon on the Frisco for Boston, the gentleman having been assigned to "shore duty" at Charleston navy yard for a year. He has had six years of continuous "sea duty" now, more than is required under the rules in vogue in the navy, but there is a lack of engineers in the service. Lieut. Cook's duties at the navy yard will be to direct work on such vessels as may be sent there for repairs. Miss Lella Cook goes as far as St. Louis with her brother and his wife, on her way to Chicago for an extended visit. Mrs. H. C. Cook is going to Kansas next week to visit with members of the family and the house will be closed up.

Origin of Chinese Opium Smoking.

Although opium has existed as a medicine in China for over a thousand years, the curse of opium smoking has only been known on any considerable scale for less than 150 years, and then it spread from the coast inland, the import steadily increasing first in the hands of the Portuguese, but from 1773 in the hands of the British. This view of the matter supports the ordinary anti-opium contention, which is that opium is almost invariably spoken of as Yang-yen—i. e., "foreign smoke (or tobacco)," and not by the Chinese name, and that the habit of opium smoking with all its attendant evils, came from across the seas and was introduced by foreigners.—Contemporary Review.

Growth of German Socialism.

Twenty-eight years ago the German socialistic vote was about 100,000, and at that time only one deputy was elected by them. With the exception of the period during which anarchists exerted an influence the party grew, and by 1892 it had gathered great strength. In 1890 it had 35 deputies. Four years later the number was 48. To-day the party polls 2,000,000 votes and has 55 deputies in the German parliament.—N. Y. Sun.

That Grand Air.

"Papa, I want a pug dog; they're so 'ristocratic-lookin'."

"Bobby, what do you mean by aristocratic-lookin'?"

"W'y, they looks like they'd git hoppin' mad if they had ter git acquainted with anybody."—Brooklyn Life.

High Death Rate Among Doctors.

A Viennese physician has compiled figures which show that the death rate among physicians is 9.66, as compared with 8.21 among lawyers and 5.33 for the clergy.

BULLETIN

People's Drug Store.

No cause for complaint at this kind of weather. We feel good and want to make it pleasant for the people.

Many of them need drugs today; all must buy occasionally.

When our drugs are not correct—not just what they they should be as to strength, etc., we throw them out.

The prices we always make low; 5, 10 or 25 cents saved on a prescription is of consequence.
